Promote YOUR Blog Day

Today is promote your blog day 2012. Today is your day for fully authorized, gratuitous self-promotion of YOUR blog. For one day only, this is your chance to shamelessly plug your blog in the comments section below. I did this last year and thought I'd make it an annual event. It's a fantastic way to help readers who share common interests find one another. So here's how it works – In the comments section of this post include: Your name, blog name & description, link to your blog, RSS feed, your Twitter handle and any other relevant information you think would be of interest to other readers. I'll approve all comments appropriate for our audience (G-rated only). If you participated last year, feel free to do so again. If you don't have blog, but want to promote someone else's blog that's okay too.
